NO REORGANIZATION NEEDED.

JAMES D. RICHARDSON SAYS MR. BRYAN IS STILL THE LEADER.

The Party Wants All the Supporters it Can Get but it Will Never Leave its Principles for the Pleasure of a Minority—The Next Convention Will Consider Pending Questions and Make the Platform Accordingly.

New York, Nov. 9.—Representative James D. Richardson has made the following statement of his views of the scheme of Democratic reorganization:

"A political post mortem is usually profitless. In this instance there is no advantage in discussing the presumptive reason for a falling off here and a gain there, and why this State went Republican and some other State did not go Democratic. The Democracy is strong and true. Its principles are unchanged and unchangeable. No temporary defeat can obscure its brilliant record. The genius of Jefferson created it. His spirit animates it. It cannot die. Today it is as dauntless as in the days of its greatest triumph, and its advocates purpose to go ahead as unfalteringly as they have gone in the past.

"Its future will be as creditable as its past. It cannot change with every shifting wind and tide. The present organization has done efficient and faithful work. It has been free from the spirit of commercialism. It has performed its duty in a way that, in my judgment, has won for it the respect and admiration of the people. The present organization will continue to control, as it very poperly should.

"As to this scheme of re-organization, I can say that the party wants all the supporters it can get. Every man who believes in Democratic principles is welcomed into the fold. But the Democratic party can make no surrender of principle for expediency's sake. It can make no surrender to the commercialism of the moment. When it does that it ceases to be Democratic, and if it vests to catch every favoring breeze it will soon be as far from its original moorings as the Republican party is from its. Seven million voters revere the doctrine of Jefferson and advocate his principles. These men will not abandon their belief to please a minority of the party. The majority rules in a Republic and in our party. The majority will continue to rule.

"No one can say on what issues the next battle will be fought. The principles of our party are immutable; issues are created by conditions. The Republican party has been invested with a solemn trust. It will be held to the strictest accountability. It has the President and both branches of Congress. It will make the laws and execute them. Upon its wisdom and upon the economic conditions that develop will the issues of the next battle depend.

"The next Democratic convention will consider all pending issues and subjects and frame a platform. It will be a Democratic, a Jeffersonian one, and all true Democrats will stand upon it. Those who do not wish to do so can stand on the Republican platform. Undoubtedly the men who call themselves Democrats, but who have been Republicans during the last two national campaigns, will not be permitted to define the issues and shape policies for the Democratic party. I believe the present organization will control. It exists in every hamlet, town and city in the nation. It is honest. It will go right ahead, just as it has done during the last four years.

"Mr. Bryan is undoubtedly at present the national leader of the people. He has an immense following, to whom his sincerity, honesty and patriotism are an inspiration."

Reception at the Normal.

The Cornelian and Adelphian Literary Societies of the State Normal and Industrial College gave a reception last night complimentary to the new students who were initiated into the mysteries of their respective societies.

Elegant refreshments were served, and it was altogether a most enjoyable occasion.

Music was furnished by the Brockmann orchestra.

A wagon loaded with coal broke down in front of Mr. M. G. Newell's yesterday afternoon.

"COON COMEDY" IN A WHIRL.

The Two Tramp Company's Star Actress Was a Real Everyday Coon.

And now the boys are grinning.

"The Two Tramp Company" which played here Wednesday night had on its advertising matter this item: "Miss May Hayers, the only lady on the American stage playing coon comedy."

And there is no doubt that Miss May played coon comedy. She did it to perfection. She was really far away ahead of anything else the company had, and her playing of the negro character received all the praise that the company won.

The whereforeness of this whyness now appears. "Miss May" was not playing coon comedy. She was coon comedy itself. A real live genuine coon girl, "the cynosure of all eyes," and the recipient of the enthusiastic plaudits of the large corporal's guard which greeted the company.

No one knew that the star was a real negro. The manager of the Academy did not know it, of course, or the company would not have been booked. He learned it only after they were gone. "Miss May," the only "lady doing coon comedy," was said to be the wife of the porter or cook in charge of the company's car.

She acted that character to perfection. But the boys who were so carried away with "Miss May's" work, are now performing bre'r rabbit's favorite scheme of "ly'n low."

BENDHEIMS TO SELL OUT.

Will Close Up Their Business Here and Return to Virginia.

In another part of this paper Messrs. D. Bendheim & Son advertise a closing out sale. This is a genuine sale, as this firm is preparing to go out of business here.

They have fully decided to return to Alexandria, Va., where they have another business established, and contemplate moving as soon as their present large stock can be disposed of. This firm has done a large business here, and has won for their house an enviable position in the business of this section. They retire from this field for the purpose of extending their Virginia business. They will go more extensively into the jobbing business there. We regret to see this firm leave Greensboro, but it is made necessary by their increased business in Virginia, which demands the presence of Mr. Bendheim, who has had charge of the business here.

The Silver Medal to the A. & M. College.

In addition to the premiums awarded to the A. & M. College by three Fair Associations in October, President Dudley has received official notice from Paris under the date of October 20, that the exhibit of the A. & M. College for the colored race has been awarded by the International Jury a silver medal. This is a compliment from abroad which probably no other school of this State has received.

The work of this institution will undoubtedly compare well with that of any other school of the country considering its limited means and its present reduced appropriation, which is $5,000 per year less than that which it formerly received when its attendance was smaller and its expenses less.

An alarm of fire was turned in this morning from the box at Clegg's corner, the blaze being located in the second story of the Monroe House. Very little damage was done, the firemen quickly arriving on the spot and extinguishing the flames.

It is supposed that the fire originated by a spark falling from the grate on the carpet.

The loss is fully covered by insurance.

On the Gridiron.

The A. & M. football team came from Raleigh last night on their way to Columbia, S. C., where they play the University of South Carolina today. They play Davidson College at Charlotte Monday. Four extra men were carried along besides the manager and coach.

The boys were told that they had only two minutes in which to eat supper here, and the way they made Gresham's edibles fly was a sight to behold.

SECRETARY GAGE TO RETIRE.

Will Leave the Cabinet in Order to Look After His Own Business—Dawes to Succeed Him.

By Wire to The Telegram.

New York, Nov. 10.—It was stated on the best of authority at the headquarters of the National Republican committee on Madison avenue, that Secretary Lyman J. Gage would soon retire from the cabinet, and that he would be succeeded as head of the Treasury Department by Charles G. Dawes, the present comptroller of the currency. For some time Mr. Gage has been desirous of leaving the cabinet and returning to Chicago to look after his own interests.

IS THIS IMPERIALISM?

The Aldermen Order the Tax Collector to Gather in All Taxes Before January 1st—Other Orders.

The days of the empire are upon us. The imperial tax gatherer will be astride our neck now. Hereafter nobody will be allowed to pay his taxes at just any old time. Last night the Aldermen ordered the collector to have in all the city taxes by January the first. And, now, proud Cæsar, in the person of Mun Rees, will stride this narrow town like a colossus, and extract unwilling dollars from still more unwilling subjects. Taxes, heretofore as sure as death, will now be surer.

Maybe the Aldermen got their imperialistic ideas from the result of the late brush with the enemy, and maybe the city's creditors have become too insistent. At any rate they have ordered the taxes to be collected up promptly, and we congratulate them on their order. The idea that taxes don't have to be paid till April is a gone one.

At the last night's meeting of the Board, the light company was ordered to place incandescent lights in front of the West Washington Street church and the West Market Street Methodist. An arc light was ordered to be placed on Summit avenue near the railroad crossing.

Alderman Boyd was appointed to draft an ordinance expelling hogs from the city limits. The idea is for this to go into effect after the present "crop" of pork has been gathered.

TEXAS SHERIFF FIGHTS A CROWD.

Besieged by an Organization Formed to Wrest the County from the Blacks.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Anderson Texas, Nov. 10.—A party headed by Sheriff Scott beseiged in the jail here, has fired a fusilade from the windows, killing three members of the White Men's Union, a political organization formed to wrest the control of the county from the blacks. Sheriff Scott was notified to put all the women and children out of the jail as it was the intention of the beseigers to dynamite the building.

Libel Suits Against Distillers.

District Attorney Holton has filed in the United States District Court at this place, libel suits against B. B. Miles and G. F. Patterson, government distillers of Guilford county. The suits are against three barrels of corn whiskey and a distilling outfit owned by Mr. Miles, and five barrels of whiskey and a distillery belonging to Mr. Patterson.

Mr. Jno. B. Wright who has just returned from a business trip in Virginiaa, had a phenomenal success. He sold eight pianos to the Southern Female College at Petersburg.

COLD STORAGE WAREHOUSE.

Located in This City by the Armour Packing Company—Mr. J. R. Donnell, Manager.

The Armour Packing Co., with headquarters at Kansas City, have just established a branch house at this place, with Mr. J. R. Donnell as agent. They have secured the building adjoining the Ice and Coal Company and have fitted it up to suit their business. The ice box, which is immediately above the cold storage room, is so large as to admit of the storage of thirty tons of ice at one time. This of course brings the temperature to about the freezing point.

All the latest and most improved appliances for handling meat have been installed, and no pains have or will be spared to meet every requirement of the trade.

Mr. Donnell cordially invites the public to call and examine the establishment. It will afford him pleasure to show visitors over the place.

Church Services Tomorrow.

There will be the usual services at Westminster tomorrow. Sunday school at 9-45 a. m. Preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Westminster League at 7 p. m. A cordial welcome to all.

Dr. L. W. Crawford will preah at Spring Garden chapel at eleven and 7:3o p. m. The public is invited.

Sermon morning and evening at West Wasnington Baptist church, by the pastor. All are invited.

Rev. Arthur Chilsom will preach in the Friends Church at at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.

There will be the usual services in West Market Methodist church and in the First Presbyterian.

There will be no services in the Catholic church, Rev. Father Anthony being in Winston for the purpose of holding services in St Leo's church.

Dr. Smith will preach tomorrow night at 7:30 on "Noah and the Ark."

UP GOES MEAT.

Chicago Dealers Met Yesterday and Advanced the Price to a Point Which Means Millions.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—An increase of one cent a pound was put upon beef, pork and mutton today by Chicago packers. The Chronicle will say tomorrow that in one year the additional cent will yield to the Chicago packers, basing the estimate upon last year's business, the following sums: Dressed beef $15.000,000; dressed pork and pork product $20,000,000; mutton $4,000,000; total additions to incomes $39,000,000.

Retailers of meats were thrown into a panic by the unexpected rise in prices. In the adjustment of prices to the consumers choice cuts of beef have gone up as much as 5 cents. Pork tenderloin jumped to the same extent, and mutton chops went up 3 cents. The advance by the packers is more than 10 per cent on the price of meat the day before election. The advance by the retailer to the consumer will average 25 per cent.

The packers claim that they have been selling dressed meats at a loss for several years. In six months the price of meatstuffs has gone up $2 50 per hundred pounds. There has been no corresponding advance in the price of cattle, hogs and sheep. Representatives of the packers in charge of the dressed meat department say the advance was justified by the condition of the trade, and the advance on the heels of the election is but a coincidence.

Pat Cunningham and Geo. McClentock, white men, were before Esquire D. H. Collins yesterday for fighting on election day. The latter was also charged with having disturbed the election. This case was continued till next Saturday.

Architect O. M. Gates has framed and hung in his office the picture of the structure he submitted for the Greensboro Loan & Trust building. If the plans accepted are much ahead of Mr. Gates', the building will be a beauty indeed.

A STORY MOST HORRIBLE.

A MAN ALLOWED TO LIE IN BED AND BE EATEN BY WORMS.

The Burlington News Reports That Henry Jordan, a Sick Mill Operative, was Allowed by a Doctor to Reach This Terrible Condition Without Once Examining Him—The Man Would Already Have Been Dead, had not Mr. Holt Discovered His Case and Attended to it.

News and Observer.

A most horrible story is printed in this week's issue of the Burlington News. A story that calls for an investigation by the courts of the county, and one that if true should insure the prosecution and punishment of those responsible for it.

The details are too horrible and revolting to be set forth here, but the facts as told by the News are these:

A young mill operative named Henry Jordan became ill with fever about eight weeks ago. He was working in the Aurora mill and boarding at the home of another operative, Amos Pickett. Dr. Bohannon was his physician until a week ago, when Dr. Stafford was called in.

When Dr. Stafford went to see Jordan he found him a living skeleton, and such flesh as he had on his lower limbs was rotten and eaten up by maggots. To use Dr. Stafford's own words:

"I found him an emaciated skeleton, with bed-sores on both hips, and the whole internal aspect of the thigh and groin in a state of gangrene, with thousands of maggots working under the skin, thus giving a most repulsive appearance to the case. It is apparent that the gangrene is a result of neglect."

The patient, Jordan, also made a statement to the News man, in which he said that the sore first started on his back—bed sores, and he asked Dr. Bohannon to look at them, but this he refused to do, telling him to rub the sores with red oak bark or wheat bran. He continued to get worse until the sore extended to the inside of his leg and formed a sore in which maggots soon began to work. He added:

"I begged him and pleaded with him to look at the sore and give me something, but he would not look at it, but told me to get some red oak bark or wheat bran, and I thought I was going to die."

Marion Jordan, the father of the sick man, arrived in Burlington Friday morning of last week. He says:

"I found my son unconscious. It was one o'clock before he recognized me. When I raised the cover I found the whole bed full of maggots. The next morning I saw them crawling all over the floor. When Dr. Stafford came we dressed the sore together. It was in such an awful condition, words fail me to describe it."

Mr. Jordan lives near Siler City, in Chatham county. He says his son is great-grand-son of Governor Manly on his mother's side, and of John Guthrie on his father's side.

Jordan will likely die. He would have been dead ere this had not Mr. Holt discovered the case and had it attended to.

Errors Corrected.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

By an inadvertence, which is much regretted by the ladies of the Aid Society of West Market Street church, the names of the following firms were omitted from the prize list of the Chrysanthemum show: Grissom & Fordham, to whom the Society is indebted for the handsome cut glass stand of perfume offered for best painting on china. Merritt, Brower & Co., for silk umbrella, offered for finest collection of Battenburg lace. W. B. Farrar, for sterling silver handled embroidery scissors, offered for prettiest handkerchief in any style of fancy work. Mr. Shrier, for one pair of ladies' patent leather slippers, offered for prettist basket of roses.

The prizes so kindly given by these gentlemen are certainly as much appreciated as those of other firms; and just here the ladies would express their gratitude to all who have thus favored them.

Carried a Deserter Back.

Sergeant P. E. Stroud left at noon for Columbus, Ohio, taking with him Frank H. Harkey, who deserted from the barracks at Columbus about two months ago. Harkey came in and voluntarily surrendered himself to the station here the latter part of last month.

FATHER WORTH MAY COME TO US

Democratic Meeting on the 20th Will be Largely Attended—The Big School Attendance in the State—Chairman Simmons Has Sciatica—The Synod Meets in Raleigh Next Week.

Special Correspondence of The Telegram.

Raleigh, Nov. 10.—It is said that in the colleges, high schools and academies in North Carolina there are now 60,000 white and 3,000 negro students.

Some of the Democrats say they regard the Eighth and Ninth Districts as hopelssly Republican—rock-ribbed, so to speak.

The football team of the Agricultural and Mechanical College left yesterday afternoon for Columbia, S. C., to play a game today.

In a theatrical way Raleigh will have two special attractions next week: "Rupert of Hentzan" Monday, with Howard Gould in the title role, and Hoyt's, "A Milk White Flag" Tuesday. There is some patronage of such good performances from near-by towns, but not a tithe of what there ought to be.

State Treasurer Worth tells me he does not know where he will live after his term of office expires in January. He has a home here and prefers to live here if he can find anything to do. He has some lots at Greensboro and says he will build a house there and may occupy it.

Next week the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina meets here. It will find the new church a particularly convenient meeting-place, and with special facilities for committee work.

The meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee here on the evening of November 20, will no doubt be largely attended. That has been the case at all the meetings this year.

Chairman Simmons has a severe attack of sciatica. He is booked to make the speech formally opening the Newbern fair next Monday.

The divorce business is on a boom here. Seven divorces at this term of the Superior Court of Wake is a pretty high record. But for that matter the divorce mill appears to be busy all over the State.

MR. BRYAN OFFERED $10,000.

The Denver Post Asks Him to Become a Member of Its Editorial Staff at That Salary.

Denver, Col., Nov. 9.—Mr. William J. Bryan, though overwhelmingly defeated, is still esteemed as of yore of some Colorado Democrats. He has been invited to become a citizen of Denver and a salary of $10,000 a year is held out as the inducement to remove from unappreciative Lincoln. The publishers of a local afternoon paper have wired Mr. Bryan as follows:

"W. J. Bryan, Nebraska:

"The press telegrams say you will leave Lincoln and that you refuse the senatorship from Nebraska. The Denver Post invites you to come to Colorado and offers you a salary of $10,000 a year to become a member of the editorial staff. It still believes you are the greatest living American.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the faculty and students of Oak Ridge Institute November 1, the following resolutions offered by the committee were unanimously adopted:

Whereas it has pleased God in His all wise providence to remove by death Jesse Benbow, one of the founders of Oak Ridge Institute, one of its trustees for many years, and throughout his whole life one of its staunchest friends and warmest supporters, therefore be it resolved:

1. That while we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who makes no mistakes, we deeply deplore the irreparable loss to this institution of his warm friendship, wise counsels and his unswerving and unwavering fidelity to all her interests.

2. That in his death we feel that the cause of higher education has lost one of its strongest advocates and supporters, the State of North Carolina one of her noblest sons, and Christian citizenship one of its most illustrious examples

3. That while we drop the tear of sympathy with the companion and bereaved children of the deceased, we rejoice with them in the legacy of the pure and beautiful life he has left us, and to this as well as to Him who doeth all things well we commend them for their surest consolation in this hour of trial.

4. That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the Oak Leaf and the county papers.

GLORIOUS NEWS

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help: but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist, Guaranteed.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1900.

INVITING A DANGER.

As a subject for serious reflection by the people of North Carolina, we submit the following remarks from the Statesville Landmark:

In our judgment there is reason to apprehend trouble for the South in the overwhelming Republican victory. We fear that, feeling safely entrenched in power, the extreme element of the party will come to the front and dominate it. If this should result an attempt will certainly be made to have Congress pass some sort of measures designed to nullify the constitutional amendments restricting negro suffrage in the South. We have an abiding faith that whatever is done or attempted to be done, the white people of the South will continue to conduct their own State governments in their own way, but the deplorable thing about the whole business is the possibility of reopening the race question which we had hoped was permanently settled. We may be taking counsel of our fears, but it is neither the nature nor the disposition of the Republican party to let the South alone, and egged on by the scurvy white Republicans of the South, the Republican fanatics North may annoy and harrass us for the next two years.

Now is the time for the exercise of extreme caution by our newspapers and public speakers. We believe that remarks are being made by them which will not only tend to irritate and arouse the hostile feeling of the now all-powerful Republican party as mentioned by The Landmark, but they will do two other things. One of these things is to give more than color to the continued claim by the scurvy white Republican politicians of the South that the negro cry was all a scare crow, originated and kept alive by Democratic politicians to frighten the people and keep them from voting the Republican ticket. This will be the chief claim of these Republicans in seeking to arouse the hostile spirit of the dominant party, that it may, if possible, find some way to annul our amendment. Not only do these statements serve to bolster up the local Republican claims, but they do more. They entirely misrepresent the sentiment which existed in the minds of the great body of the white people of North Carolina who voted so overwhelmingly for the amendment last August.

And what are these statements by Democrats that do these two things? They are such as that lately made by the Democratic chairman that the successful operation of the amendment would keep the Democratic party in power for twenty-five years, and one made by the chief Democratic organ this morning that without "the negro vote the Democrats would have carried Notth Carolina by 100,000 majority, and elected all nine of the members of Congress," and "let the Republicans boast now of what they will do. In 1902 their name will be Dennis. The scene of the negroes kissing the ballot box good bye on election day in Newton shows that the Republicans will be shorn of their great strength."

The thinking people of this State took the high ground, and they yet maintain it, that the amendment was an absolute necessity to protect our civilization, and to maintain a State government that could perpetuate our institutions, maintain law, and guarantee life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness to every citizen, and not that it was necessary for the purpose of retaining a solid delegation in Congress, or to give the electoral vote of North Carolina to any man. When we abandon that high ground and get upon one of party expediency we will lose the sympathy of the Nation, which we now have, and the efforts of the extreme element of the Republican party, held back by public opinion now, will be unchecked. And every declaration like those we have quoted misrepresent the situation and help at the same time to weaken the contention upon which we now hold the respect and sympathy of the conservative public of nearly the entire country. Does any one doubt that all such statements are carefully filed and labeled for future reference and exhibition by the Republican managers?

Mr. Simmons and the Machine.

To the Editor of the Telegram:

In an editorial of Nov. 7th in regard to the defeat of Gen. Carr you say: "But that defeat was accomplished by the machinery of the party he had fought to sustain and build up in season and out of season." Will you please tell how that thing was "accomp'ished" In what way and by whom. Please name the men and the special way in which they worked it.

T. T. BROOKS.

[We hope our remarks were not construed as an intended reflection on anybody who voted for Mr. Simmons, as that was not intended. We simply meant that he and his subordinates took advantage of their official position to work in his behalf. As for the naming the of men, that would require the enumeration of about all the chairmen in the State. We know that thousands and thousands voted for Mr. Simmous because they considered him the best man for the place and were uninfluenced by any other cause, but that does not altar the fact that the party prestige was used in Mr. Simmons' behalf. This is too patent for dispute. For our part we are willing to let the matter drop. If Mr. Carr has no kick it is quite certain that we shall not have. Refraining from crying aloud the truth, however, does not alter the existence.

There is no reflection on men who voted for Mr. Simmons, the reflection is on the taste and sense of fafiness that allowed the party machinery to be utilized in doing the campaign work of one individual, while others were thrown on their own resources. In this connection we notice the following in this week's issue of the Reidsville Weekly]:

"Gen. Carr made a gallant fight and under ordinary conditions would have won, but Mr. Simmons having the party machinery in his hands and having thoroughly organized his forces before the General entered the race, the contest was a most unequal one. We are satisfied that if he had resigned the State Chairmanship and conducted his canvass upon his own hook, as Gen. Carr did, and as Gov. Jarvis and Col. Waddell did while they were in the race, he would not have won the prize. With the average Democratic voter it was not a question of choosing between Democrats, who could best serve the interests of the State, as the State convention clearly intended it should be, but it was a matter of standing by the organization. Mr. Simmons, working through the organization, succeeded in impressing upon the rank and file of the party the feeling that good faith demanded he should be given the senatorship as a reward for his services as Chairman. Opposition to him was resented as an attack upon the party. With this view impressed upon the people in every precinct, the primary became a farce, so far as carrying out the spirit of the resolutions authorizing it was concerned. The object of the primary was to let the people instruct the party. Chairman Simmons held that it was for the party to instruct the people, and those who did not obey instructions were "soreheads," "disorganizers," and other things that Democrats should not be.

"Mr. Jas. S. Manning, of Durham, a gentleman of the highest integrity, and a Democrat, made the statement in the public prints only a few days ago that every county chairman in the State except two exacted pay for distributing Gen. Carr's tickets.

"Success does not change the fact that Chairman Simmons used the party machinery to promote his personal ambition. It was not fair, and we hope the like of it will never occur again in North Carolina."

DISCARD THE CORSET,

Philadelphia Girls Follow the Advice of the Chinese Minister, Wu Ting Fang.

The corset has been relegated to obscurity by many of the most fashionable young women of Philadelphia. Mme. Goches Sarrante, who believes that women wearing the unhygienic thing should be punished by law, has rallied a host of followers from Philadelphia around her flag.

Led by Dr. Grace Spiegel, of the normal school, many of the young girls of Philadelphia are banding together against this article of feminine wear. They consider it not mildly unhygienic, but actively harmful. Dr. Spiegel's opinions on the question are:

"It is really wicked for women, and especially growing girls, to force themselves into such straitjackets. They need free play of muscles to give them the best physical and mental health; they need loose clothing to allow free play of muscle. No need, as some think, of a girl's looking untidy because she does not wear corsets to deform her natural figure. She can be neat, carry herself properly and feel happier without them."

"Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese minister, puts the wearing of corsets on a par with foot-binding," said a member of the Society of the Philadelphia Woman's Medical College the other day. She knows, because she has been assisting in th entertainment of the distinguished foreigner during his recent visit to that city. "In his address to our alumnae," continued the medical woman, "he cited the Chinese dress as one mark of the emancipation of the women of his country and their superiority over Americans."

With Malicious Intent.

Mrs. Gibb—I have just been reading an item to the effect that a member of the German parliament once talked 42 hours without stopping. Do you believe that to be true?

Mr. Gibb—To be sure I do.

"Then it must be the longest continuous performance of that kind on record, isn't it?"

"Possibly the longest on record, but there have been private performances that throw that completely in the shade. Why, I know a woman who has talked—let me see, dear. How long have we been married?"—Richmond Dispatch.

SENSE IN ANIMALS.

BY SHAWEN.

This way of discrediting animals by saying that men have mind and animals only instinct should be foresworn. Anybody who will take the trouble to win an animal's affection will find that animals give understanding for understanding. There is to be sure, a difference of degree, and not of kind. On the contrary, even men of slight mental endowments but kind of heart, have won the affection of animals, and by training them have developed a degree of intelligence surpassing their own. Men who study and know animals are reluctant to write of or even tell the capacities of dumb creatures under their observation, for fear that scoffers will disbelieve and sneer. Scoffers of this sort are so unworthy that their ignorance should be without regard.

Cleopatra won the affection of an asp and led it to do her bidding when she sought its venom. I know an officer who, during the civil war, in a swift cavalry retreat, fell from his horse, fracturing one of his arms and dislocating a hip. Bullets were whizzing as plentifully as hail, and the horse was acquainted with their mission. But he was accustomed to eating his rations from the hands of the man who fell and lay helpless near him. The poor beast stayed beside his master and pawed and neighed, doing his best to attract the attention and assistance of the man's fleeing comrades, in order that he might be placed again in the saddle. But men in retreat seldom pause in a storm of lead to help a comrade. Before the disordered column had passed him the horse was struck by a bullet and died at the hurt man's side.

I knew a diminutive bird, as intimate with its keeper as a child with its father, to fall sick and droop. The little songster tried to play its customary pranks but failed. The devoted man tried hard to save him, but his process was of no avail. In tones as soft as a woman's whisper the little fellow chirped his gratitude and, resting for an instant on the finger that lifted him, pecked sadly, lovingly on the man's lips. There was a little interval of pain and then death intervened—just as it intervenes to save the rose from snow and ice; just as it turns the serpent's fangs against itself when its allotted span is complete and it is no longer able to crawl about and prey on other forms of life; just as it stretches the aspiring eagle on the plain when it can soar no more; just as it presents the vision of Elysian fields to those who have fought a good fight and have finished their course; just as it says to a wrecked and wretched heart, "Be still!"

WINE OF CARDUI

THE LINK THAT BINDS.

JACKSON, TENN., Nov. 28.

I was subject to miscarriage for three years, and suffered constantly with backache. I wrote to you for advice, and after using three bottles of Wine of Cardui, according to your directions, I am strong and well, and the mother of a fine girl baby.

Mrs. E. N. JOWERS.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

There is no use talking—a baby in the house is the link that binds husband and wife together. Nothing is sadder than fruitless wedlock. The prattling and cooing of the little ones offset a thousand times the occasional worries and trials of life. When a wife is barren, there is a derangement somewhere in the genital organs, caused by one or more of those common disorders known as "female troubles". Wine of Cardui is the remedy. It puts the organs of generation in a strong and healthy condition, fitting the wife for the sacred duty of reproducing her kind. During the period of gestation the entire system of the expectant mother is built up to withstand the ordeal of labor, and when the little one makes its advent it is lusty and strong, well-fitted to grow to maturity in perfect health. The mother, too, passes through the trial with little pain and no dread. Wine of Cardui is truly a wonderful medicine for women.

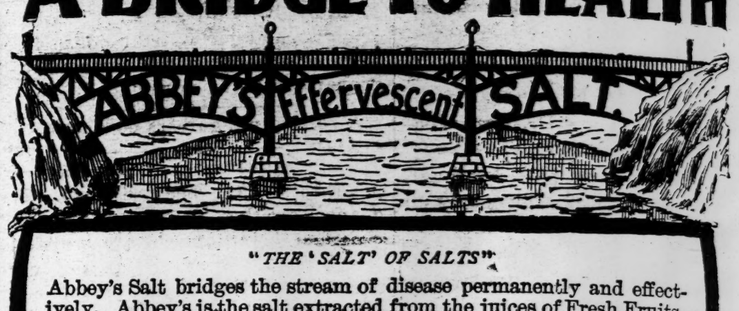
A BRIDGE TO HEALTH



"THE 'SALT' OF SALTS"

Abbey's Salt bridges the stream of disease permanently and effectively. Abbey's is the salt extracted from the juices of Fresh Fruits. It will remove any case of Biliousness by dissipating the bile—it will cure Dyspepsia by removing the cause and toning up the stomach. It will keep your liver in healthy action and make your blood pure by the elimination of all impure matter. Such things as Bad Breath, Flatulency and Headaches are unknown where Abbey's is used. Abbey's Salt is good to take at all times, and as a remedy for the ills of Spring it is without an equal.

H. A. PAGE, Superintendent of the Keeley Institute, White Plains, N. Y., says: "I have used Abbey's Salt to an extent by which I know that it is beyond anything I have heretofore used. I shall continue to prescribe your preparation."

THE ONE PRICE CASH CASH CLOTHIERS, 304 South Elm Street, Greensboro, N. C.

W. C. T. U. DEPARTMENT.

[CONDUCTED BY THE LOCAL UNION.]

One small whiskey glass carved on a headstone would often tell more truth than three volumes of biography.

The Anti-Saloon League is fully organized in the State of Tennessee. It proposes to fight the traffic in intoxicating liquors on all grounds.

According to federal statistics in the fifteen largest towns in Switzerland over ten per cent of the men over twenty years of age die solely or partly of alcoholism.

The Champion, a liquor organ, declares that the amount of trade done in the liquor business in Chicago for 1899 amounted to $21,000,000 as against $16,800,000 for 1898.

THE DRINK DEMON.

"Look not thou upon the wine when it is red when it giveth his color to the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like and adder."

Tonight it enters an humble home to strike the rose from a woman's cheek and tomorrow it challenges this republic in the halls of Congress.

Tonight it strikes a crust from the lips of a starving child and tomorrow levies the tribute from the government itself.

It comes to ruin and it profits mainly by the ruin of your son and mine.

It comes to change the wife's love into despair and her pride into shame.

It comes to still the laughter on the lips of innocent little children.

It comes to ruin your body and mind, to wreck your home and it knows it must measure its prosperity by the swiftness and certainty with which it wrecks this world.

STRONG DRINK.

"Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise."

Time is never more uselessly wasted, money never more wastefully spent than when spent for alcohol. Society has no greater abomination to contend against. The reputations it has ruined, the promising careers it has destroyed, the families it has disgraced, the men it has brought to the gallows, the lives it has cost, the disease it has wrought, all point to it as the greatest of the world's accursed evils. It destroys virtue, mocks honesty, encourages crime, stimulates misery, excites passion, infuses hate, kills friendship, kindles strife incites murder. It is the sum of all villainy, the root of all evil, the spring of all wickedness. It brings disease, not strength, despair, not hope. death.

THE APPETITE OF A GOAT.

Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose stomach and liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful stomach and liver remedy gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

These proverbs are queer things. We hear about footprints in the sands of time, and we are also told that time flies. Now, if the latter is correct, where do the footprints come from?

DR. BATTLE AT GUILFORD.

Will Lecture on the 17th—Close of Meeting—A Graded School Movement.

Correspondence of the Telegram.

Guilford College, Nov. 9.—Dr. Kemp P. Battle, of Chapel Hill, will lecture at Guilford College on the evening of the 17th at 7:30. The public is cordially invited to be present. His subject will be "A Century's Development of the Constitution of North Carolina."

A series of religious meetings has just closed here conducted by Mr. Arthur Chilson and Mr. Gurney Lee.

The free school in this district is giving universal satisfaction. There are two teachers, Miss Lola S. Stanley, principal, and Mrs. L. S Smith, assistant; and the work is graded, thus giving the children the great advantage of a graded school in the country. An effort will be made to obtain a charter to establish a graded school next year.

The Manayunk Philosopher rises to remark that it's a pity some fellows who boast of their family trees can't be strung up on them.

GOOD ADVICE.

The most miserable things in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

Grissom & Fordham.

The pealing of an organ may be very impressive, but the peeling of a banana is apt to make even a greater impression.

The Manayunk Philosopher rises to remark that it's a pity some fellows who boast of their family trees can't be strung up on them.

You can't afford to risk your life by allowing a cough or cold to develop into pneumonia or consumption. One Minute Cough Cure will cure throat and lung troubles quicker than any other preparation known. Many doctors use it as a specific for grippe. It is an infallible remedy for croup. Children like it and mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

She is an odd girl who isn't always trying to get even with some other girl.

A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Iowa, writing of his almost miraculous escape from death says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

A soft answer may turn away wrath but sometimes it comes hard.

Both makers and circulators of counterfeits commit fraud. Honest men will not deceive you into buying worthless counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The original is infallible for curing piles, sores, eczema and all skin diseases. Howard Gardner.
